

A LETTER
TO
PARISH PRIESTS
AND CHURCH
MEMBERS

Dear Parish Priest/Church Member,

Greetings, in the precious name of Christ! I hope that you receive this letter in good health, and in God's Grace. This letter is all about learning the best way to do God's Will on Earth, as this should be our priority in life. Do you remember Abel and Cain? If we truly love God and intend to serve Him the way He has asked us to, we should do it like Abel did, as God commands, and not as we think is best or good enough, as Cain did and was rejected.

I wish to please direct your attention to the real message of Christ that is consistently overlooked, by all the different "Christian" denominations. For your further understanding and record, I am a follower of Christ, and of "The Way", as Christ intended it, and am not into any 'organized religion'. I am writing to you, as you are a member of the Catholic Church, because it has many followers and much influence, both of which could be potently used for spreading the REAL "good news".

When you were ordained as a priest, you declared to be both a servant of Christ and the Catholic Church at the same time. This puts you in a conflict of allegiance, because you cannot both abide by what Christ says and does, and by what the Roman Catholic Church (RCC) says and does. This begs the priceless question: "If there is a conflict between Christ's teaching and the RCC, who will you choose to obey and promote?"

You may think that this is not possible, to have the church not being directed by Christ, as you may think that Christ instituted the Church. I pray that you will take the time to read this letter, attachments or links, so that its full significance can be better understood. I know that many people will refuse to read this message because many people are very arrogant in thinking that they already know everything perfectly, when they obviously do not, or they would not still be here. This should be evident in the first few pages that follow this.

All Biblical references are from the King of king's Bible (not yet in print), unless otherwise stated¹. Christ's own words are in blue, to place more emphasis on Our Lord's messages, in this respect.

There are a number of issues that you may think are core Catholic truths, but Biblical and other facts will state otherwise. I will list a number of them, in question and answer format.

1) Was St. Peter the first pope/bishop of Rome: true or false?

Who really and truly founded the Church? Was the Church instituted under the direction of the Emperor Constantine, of the Eastern Roman Empire (invoking the Council of Nicaea (AD 325)); by St. Peter; or otherwise?

Let us see whether it might have been St. Peter. The RCC says that Peter was the rock upon which the church was founded. Upon scrutiny of the suffix of Petrus, the Latin "us" is in the diminutive, and thus Petrus means small stone, or pebble, and certainly not a rock. The King James Bible says that Peter was the stone, but in the RCC Bible, the stone is changed to 'rock'. That is one purposely misleading translation with serious consequences.

¹ For more information and summary of the King of kings Bible, please browse here: <http://jahtruth.net/kofkad.htm>

Peter was NEVER a Pope of Rome. He lived, died and was buried IN JERUSALEM (at the site which is now a Franciscan Monastery called Dominus Flevit, according to an ex-JESUIT BISHOP, who got his information from The VATICAN. Peter's grave was found, around 1960, in Jerusalem) and NOT in Rome. All of the EVIDENCE suggests that, as he was COMMANDED by Jesus not to go there, Peter was not in Rome (note well - Matt. 10:5) and that Peter never even VISITED Rome.

An Italian book called, "Gli Scavi del Dominus Flevit", printed in 1958 at the "Tipografia del PP. Francescani", in Jerusalem, and written by P. B. Bagatti and J. T. Milik, both Roman Catholic priests, is of relevance here. They refer to a charcoal inscription which reads: "Shimon Bar Yonah" which means "Simon [Peter] son of Jona", which must be the most perfect description of St. Peter that could ever be found.²

Matthew 10:5 states that the disciples were commanded by Christ to preach to the lost sheep of the "House of Israel", but not to go where the Samaritans or Gentiles were. Surely there were no Samaritans in and around Rome, but also no Israelites to preach to there. St. Paul was responsible for preaching to the Gentiles, as he was not one of Jesus' original 12 disciples, and did not receive that instruction/commandment (Matthew 10:5). The apostles, as mentioned in Matthew 10:1, were not responsible for preaching to the Gentiles.

Paul in his letter to the Romans never mentioned

2 <http://www.aloha.net/~mikesch/peters-jerusalem-tomb.htm> Peter's Tomb Recently Discovered In Jerusalem

Peter, which would have been very strange, and extremely rude, IF Peter was in Rome, because Paul salutes over 25 different members of the community in Rome. If Peter was in Rome, why would Paul have felt it necessary to write to and instruct the faithful there, and especially if Peter was there as leader of the disciples; as the popes falsely claim?

Paul himself tells us that Peter was IN JERUSALEM and was an apostle to the Jews³ (see Galatians 1:18 and 2:7) and NOT to Rome (Paul, who was not one of the original 12 disciples, was Christ's Apostle to the Gentiles).

The Bible and Christ refute the notion of Peter's stature as head of the disciples, or of anyone as chief, or of one apostle being greater than another, which is in direct contrast to what the Catholics claim:

Luke:

*22:24 And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.
22:25 And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.
22:26 But ye [shall] NOT [be] so:*

The whole foundation of the Catholic Church is based on these major lies: Peter as disciple leader; as first pope and his presence in Rome, which even high-ranking Vatican officials know are not true. It is all therefore built on sand, and not stone. Peter's true burial site was revealed by Catholic priests themselves! If the Vatican is knowingly and willingly fabricating things about Peter, as it undoubtedly is, what else would they be doing to mislead their members?

2) Can any physical Church be that of Christ or not?

The Church is spiritual, and not of stone, and no man can lay it! In St. Paul's letter, this is self explanatory.

1 Corinthians:

3:9 For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, [ye are] God's building.

3:10 According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

3:11 For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

The Bible states that the true Church is Spiritual, and within us, but over the centuries the materialistic/money-hoarding mammon-worshipping Roman Catholic Church has become, according to some researchers, the single richest land-owning organization on planet Earth (and perhaps the single wealthiest in general), when that is totally against what the Bible instructs. Christ told us to store up our treasure in heaven, and not on Earth – Matthew 6:19-21, 24 – and that we cannot worship two masters – God and mammon.

Cardinals earn between US$10,000 to US$12,000 per month, which is pure luxury, whilst the pope speaks of 'not considering material wealth', in this world. The German Cardinal Joachim Meisne earns some €11,300 per month.⁴ It is important to set an example, and not only by words. There are many secret bank accounts, company shares and stocks, of the Holy See, that few people know about.

It is difficult to determine the value of Vatican owned land, but if we speak in terms of proportions, in the case of Malta, about one third of land-property is owned by the Church. Recently this land has been transferred to the administration of the government. The church in exchange earns a return in the form of interest on bonds, issued by the Government of Malta, besides actually straight selling of land. (Note that interest-bearing means usury in practice, which is prohibited by God).

3) Should you abide by the Traditions of Men, or accept Christ's teachings against those traditions?

Pope John Paul II, in his book, "Crossing the Threshold of Hope" encourages others to follow the "TRADITIONS of men" that Christ himself CONDEMNS and it is written in Mark 7 v 9 and Matt. 15 v 1-9. "By your TRADITIONS you make the COMMANDMENTS of God of NO effect."

Some priests have called my reasoning "limited". They truly are in one respect, because we should only be limited to what God and Christ tell us, in The Bible, rather than making up other rules, and regulations, that are traditions-of-men, which are forbidden by Christ. You either live by God's rules or you do not. In case you have not been following God's rules fully, as laid down in the Bible, after receiving this letter you can no longer consciously claim "innocence", as God sees all, and is not mocked. There are souls to save, including your own, rather than to destroy, by misleading them into the ditch of fire (Matthew 15:14).

4 <http://www.infiniteunknown.net/2010/06/17/and-now-financial-scandals-the-hidden-wealth-of-the-catholic-church/>

Do you remember the first lesson in Genesis, when the woman ate the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil? Adam and Eve disobeyed God, and they were ashamed of it. The traditions of men, that the Church promotes, is also a form of "tree-of-knowledge-of-evil" (hence Deut 4:2), but the churches go even further than that, by having added several other traditions over time, by the mechanisms of synods and papal decrees!

The synod of bishops, make up other "traditions" that contradict the Bible, which continue to make God's message of no effect. There are so many examples, but I will just mention, the "assumption" of Mary's status as the "Mother-of-God".

Let us firstly refer to Christ's understanding of 'mother', as the RCC is so fond of referring to the "Mother of God". After all Christ is the real Authority on all issues, and not men:

*Mark: 3:33 And he answered them, saying, Who is my mother, or my brethren?

*3:34 And he looked round about on them which sat about him, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren!

*3:35 For whosoever shall DO the Will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.

Luke 8:21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the Word of God, and DO it.

The prophet Jeremiah foresaw long before Christ came, that there would be a blasphemous worshipping of an imaginary “queen of heaven”. For the concept of a ‘queen of heaven’ to be true there would need to be two key elements, i) a queen, and ii) for her to have ascended to heaven. There is no better image of a queen than a “crowned woman”, and for the second part, she would had to have “risen to heaven”.

The Catholic Church always venerated the queen of Heaven, according to Pius XII:

“From the earliest ages of the Catholic Church a Christian people, whether in time of triumph or more especially in time of crisis, has addressed prayers of petition and hymns of praise and veneration to the Queen of Heaven ...”⁵

The “Queen of Heaven” title was given to Mary by the main Christian Churches, to whom the title was given by the Council of Ephesus in the fifth century, disputed though it is.⁶

Now we turn our attention to why we should not adore/

5 http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Queen_of_Heaven

6 http://wapedia.mobi/en/Queen_of_Heaven serve statues the way the RCC does, like to Madonna (Mary) figures. Papal / bishop pilgrimages to Lourdes or Fatima for example, are furthering idolatry, and teach men how to break the 2nd Commandment (by worshipping graven images forbidden in most Bibles). Further explanations on the Commandments will be mentioned towards the end of this letter. When reading the prophet Jeremiah we see the following:

Jeremiah

44:18 But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all [things], and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine.

44:19 And when we burned incense (or candles) to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings unto her, did we make her wafers (with I.H.S. on them) to worship her, and pour out drink offerings (wine) unto her, without our men?

44:23 Because ye have burned incense, and because ye have sinned against the "I AM", and have not obeyed the voice of the "I AM", nor walked in His Law, nor in His Statutes, nor in His Covenant; therefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day.

44:24 Moreover Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the Word of the "I AM", all Judah that [are] in the land of Egypt:

44:25 Thus saith the "I AM" Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, saying; Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense (or candles) to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows.

44:26 Therefore hear ye the Word of the “I AM”, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt; Behold, I have sworn by My great name, saith the “I AM”, that My name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord “I AM” Liveth.

44:27 Behold, I will watch over them for evil, and not for good: and all the men of Judah that [are] in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them.

If you pray to Mary, as in the “Hail Mary” and other prayers to her, you are disobeying and insulting God and, because of that, He will not answer you and will allow you to punish yourselves and to suffer, by with-holding His help and Guidance, until you stop insulting Him and approach Him in the correct manner, just as Abel did.⁷

A spirit has no need of a mother, because God as its Creator is not human and has no human-sex, and has no need for a co-creator, as humans-in-the-flesh do.

You may understand that Mary is not the mother of God, and that her human body merely carried the body called Jesus that Christ was using and that she did NOT ascend to heaven, but was buried in Glastonbury⁸, as was Joseph of Arimathaea⁹ who was her uncle. So why propagate this blasphemous lie to all the people, even if you admit it to yourselves? Please remember what Matthew said about the blind leading the blind into The Fire and God's commandment not to bear false witness/tell lies.

⁷ <http://jahtruth.net/qofhevn.htm>

⁸ <http://jahtruth.net/glaston.htm>

⁹ <http://jahtruth.net/joarim.htm>

If you insist on honouring Mary, and want to do it in a Biblical way, why not do it, as she herself says:

John 2:5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do [it].

So Mary honours Christ, and we should in turn only obey Christ and Father. It seems that whenever the Church has changed things, since it thinks that it knows and can do better than God, it has only ever managed to dilute or pervert God's Word. By implementing these changes, communication with God will diminish, or worse still, God will distance Himself from you, since you seem to love to DISOBEY both what He, and Christ say. Now at least you know that you disobey even what Mary says, which is 'To DO what Christ says'.

4) Was Mary a perpetual virgin?

Jesus was born to Mary, who was a virgin, at that point in time. I am not disputing Christ's virgin birth, but after Jesus' birth, Mary gave birth to other children, none of which were births by Immaculate Conception. Below is the Biblical proof:

The Gospel of Matthew

1:25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name JESUS.

The words “knew her” meant sexual intimacy, and hence Joseph only went into Mary after Jesus Christ was born. Now please read how many siblings Jesus had below:

10:2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; The first, Simon, who is called Peter (Cephas), and Andrew his brother; James [the son] of Zebedee, and John his brother;

10:3 Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the taxman; James (the Lord's half-brother - ch. 13:55 below and Gal. 1:19 above) [the son] of Alphaeus (Mary's second husband) and Lebbaeus, whose surname was Thaddaeus;

10:4 Simon the Canaanite, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

13:55 Is not this (Jesus) the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his BROTHERS, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Jude? (4 of them).

13:56 And his SISTERS (more than one sister), are they not all with us? Whence then hath this [man] all these things?

*Mary therefore, including Jesus, gave birth to an absolute minimum of SEVEN children - count them for yourself. How could she possibly have been a PERPETUAL virgin?

The Gospel of Mark

3:18 And Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James (the Lord's half-brother - ch. 6:3 below) the [son] of Alphaeus (Mary's second husband), and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Canaanite, 3:19 And Judas Iscariot, which also betrayed him: and they went into an house.

6:3 Is not this the carpenter, (Jesus) the son of Mary, the brother of James, and Joses, and of Jude, and Simon (FIVE brothers including Jesus)? and are not his sisterS (at LEAST TWO) here with us? And they were offended at him.

Paul's letter to the Galatians

1:19 *But other of the apostles saw I none, except James the Lord's (half) BROTHER.

1:20 *Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I LIE NOT.¹⁰

I hope that you now see the Bible's/God's point of view, rather than any priest's/pope's point of view.

The Catholic Church claims that the Madonna came to earth without sin, and went to heaven, which is completely from its imagination (see Genesis 6:5 to see who controls the imagination of men), and not Biblically supported. This quite obviously contradicts the Bible, which says that all persons have sinned, except Christ, and with no exception.

Romans:

3:20 Therefore by the deeds of The Law there shall no

¹⁰ <http://jahtruth.net/mary.htm>

flesh be justified in His sight: for by The Law [is] the Knowledge of sin.

3:21 But now the righteousness of God without The Law is manifested, being witnessed by The Law and the Prophets;

3:22 Even the righteousness of God [which is] by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:

3:23 For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;

5) Do the sacraments that Catholics speak of, make any Biblical sense?

The Council of Trent (1545 to 1565)¹¹, discussed the issue of sacraments. In some European countries they practiced 3, 4 and up to a maximum of 7 sacraments. It made sense to the RCC, to have the maximum of 7. This translates to more “control” over the people, don’t you think?

Don’t you think that having ‘mass’ in a foreign language (Latin), and people having been banned, in the past from owning their own Bibles, on pain of death (so that the truth about the RCC’s false doctrines could not be seen), was cleverly controlling people, which would lead to both their and priests eventual spiritual deaths? The RCC’s hierarchy orchestrated these sinister things so that average people would not understand that God and Christ condemned religions and their ‘traditions’, and required people not to support them.

¹¹ http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Council_of_Trent

If you have been knowingly and willingly complicit in the above, then that is very bad, but if your leaders have only duped you and until now you did not know any better, then you should begin speaking out against these things and take up the real cross of Christ, by crucifying the self (your ego-filled “Self”, that Satan loves to use against you and others) and not to follow the ways of this world, but to follow only Christ. I will select a few ‘sacraments’ to prove their irrelevance in the eyes of God, Whom you are supposed to, and claim to serve.

Some Sacraments:

A) On Baptism:

The first four gospels all refer to Christ’s baptism by water, via John the Baptist, and later by fire (of the Holy Spirit). Nothing is needed from human priests, in the bestowal of the Holy Spirit to anyone, as this is the prerogative of Christ and God. If one follows Christ, then there is now no need for baptism by water, as this is superseded by the fire of the Holy Spirit. The RCC loves to have rituals that can be seen and paid for, rather than have the unseen elements of the spiritual realm. The Baptism of infants by water has no Scriptural foundation, since Christ came and it was only implemented as a revenue-generating scheme by the churches.

Matthew: 3:11 I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit, and [with] fire:

Mark: 1:8 I indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit.

Luke: 3:16 John answered, saying unto [them] all, I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire:

John: 1:33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the Same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Spirit.

In conclusion, the four gospels, all share the same truth, and the same message. Do you understand the above message, that it is Christ, as the only authorized Priest, that can send us the Holy Spirit? That is the only acceptable form of baptism that has any value.

B) On the Holy Orders:

If God abolished the priesthood, why would He then set up any Holy Orders? The Levites, who were the only priesthood allowed by God, were later replaced by Christ, and that was foretold a few centuries before Him. God is not feeble-minded like us humans. He always says what He means and means what He says and keeps His Word, and He does not flip-flop.

When Jesus Christ was crucified, the curtain that separated the “Holy of Holies” from the outer chamber of God's Temple in Jerusalem, was torn in two from top to bottom, symbolizing that from then onwards, Christ was (and is) the High Priest for all time, and it is Him alone that stands between man and God. Note also that God reluctantly allowed His Temple (in Jerusalem) to be built twice, but never again on Earth, to show to all and sundry, that no other churches "in stone" are allowed, and with no exceptions.

Biblical proof of this can be read as follows:

Tephi: For, now I dwell not in houses (churches, etc.), - Only with men I dwell (in their hearts and minds).

Ezekiel: 34:2 Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord "I AM" unto the Levites; Woe [be] to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the flocks? 34:3 Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye kill them that are fed [the Prophets]: [but] ye feed not the flock.

Are you like one of the shepherds (priests) that the prophet Ezekiel mentioned above that do not feed the people with God's truth?

34:23 And I will set up One shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, [even] My "Well-Beloved" servant; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd. 34:24 And I the "I AM" will be their God, and My "Well-Beloved" servant a prince among them; I the "I AM" have spoken [it].

That One Shepherd is Christ. There are now no more exceptions to having a physical Temple for God. From the crucifixion till today, Christ was and is our High Priest and for all time, and His church is spiritual, and not of stone. As the priests do not feed the truth to the people, God replaced the Levitical priesthood, who were the only priests ever acknowledged by Him in the first place, and replaced them with the One Shepherd/Pastor (Christ).

From the gospel of Matthew:

23:7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called by men, Priest, Rabbi, Imam, etc.

23:8 But be not ye called priest (etc.): for One is your Teacher, [even] Christ; and all ye are brethren.

23:9 And call no [man] your father upon the earth: for one is your Father, which is in heaven.

23:10 Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, [even] Christ.

23:11 But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant.

The above clearly states to not call yourselves father, for only God is called Father. How much clearer can your disobedience be made to you than by this subject alone? How much can Christ and God bear to be contradicted and opposed? Also, do not call yourselves priests, because only Christ is our (High) Priest, and also our only Master.

In the Catholic Bible the reference to 23:8 uses only the word “rabbi” because, like many other misleading translations in the Catholic Bible, it allows them to deceive people for various reasons. The root intention of what Christ was telling people, in the above passage, is that 'leaders' in any of the innumerable religions and denominations are all in the wrong, whether they are priests, rabbis, imams, or whatever else — because He, Christ, became the one and only Priest/Rabbi/Imam/etc. So why do you call yourself priest (23:8) or even worse father (23:9), in defiance of what Christ said?

Thus ONLY Christ could be trusted by God, to be a priest and is therefore The High Priest for all time, as the historical and present priesthoods have never actually served God in the way He commanded them to.

C) Sacraments of Penance and Reconciliation & Anointing of the Sick

The Bible teaches us that only God the Father, and His Son have the power to forgive sins, and the only mediator between Father and us human+beings is Christ, with no exception. Note that physical sickness is really the physical manifestation of a spiritual sickness/deficiency and hence the two are intimately related. Let the Bible speak to us again:

1 Timothy

2:5 For [there is] ONE God, and One mediator between God and men, the Man Jesus Christ;

2:6 Who gave himself a ransom for all, a testimony at the due time.

Acts

4:12 Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

Luke

5:21 And the lawyers and the politicians began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?

*5:22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

*5:23 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?

*5:24 But that ye may know that the Son of Man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

No human intermediary is needed to approach Father since the Temple Veil was rent in two from top to bottom at the time of the Crucifixion. Christ teaches us the way to communicate with Father, and hence “The Way”! It is only upon true repentance that sins are forgiven, as God sees into our hearts. Only God The Father and Christ, as the High Priest, have the power to forgive sins, and it is not by any means possible to have human priests or so-called saints intervene on behalf of the sinner.

6) Should one go to Mass or not?

The fulcrum of Catholic Mass is the so-called offering of Christ, in the form of wafers and wine, as His body and blood. The Bible teaches that the sacrifice of Christ was offered once and for all at the crucifixion, and is not to be repeated, but only commemorated at the Lord's Supper. (Read Hebrews 7:26-27; 9:24-28; 10:10-11).

Hebrews

7:26 For such an High Priest became us, [who is] holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens;

7:27 Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself.

9:24 For Christ is not entered into the Holy Places made with hands, [which are] the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us:

9:25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the Holy Place (on Mt. Moriah) every year with blood of others;

9:26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

9:27 And as it is appointed unto (the "Self" of) men once to die, but then after this the Judgment:

9:28 So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

10:10 By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once [for all].

10:11 And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can NEVER take away sins:

To summarize Hebrews as mentioned above, Christ came to Earth to offer up Himself for us, just once and for our sins up to that point in time, and He is not going to enter into any so called Holy Places (including your churches) and certainly not churches made by men's hands. Hebrew 10:11 above explains with clarity that the daily ministering by a priest can never take away sins, as you currently wrongly think and claim you are able to do.

Turning to the Bible again, to find the following verses in Matthew:

6:5 And when thou prayest, thou shalt NOT be as the hypocrites [ARE]: for they love to pray standing in the churches and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen by men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

6:6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and WHEN THOU HAST SHUT THY DOOR, pray to thy Father in private; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

6:7 But when ye pray, use NOT vain repetitions, as the heathen [DO]: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

In just three verses you can find key issues that you should ponder on. According to Christ, people who pray standing in churches, where they can be seen, are hypocrites. Although priests do not deny the right to pray in private, they do not promote it much, and neither do their followers, as a means of communicating with God more effectively. Thus this is contradicting Christ again. Christ did not go to their churches in the Holy Land at that time, or follow their rituals. He went to draw people away from the rituals and to show them 'The Way' of God. That is why the church leaders at the time wanted to kill Him! He was hurting their lucrative business!

And ever since its false beginnings, after Christ had physically left, and in total disregard and defiance of what Christ really taught and did, the RCC deliberately re-established many of the things that He was striving to do away with!

So please do not confuse the facts that Christ went to the churches or synagogues, to promote the issue of attending them. As the Bible very clearly states, His intention was to show people how to interpret God's message (The Bible), in the correct way, which meant taking them away from the ritual-practicing churches/synagogues, and the like.

7) Is repetitive praying good or bad?

*Praying is to be done in private and NOT in public. Whilst the 'Lords Prayer' or 'Our Father' is a very good one, the same is not true of the Roman Catholic 'Hail Mary', or the 'rosary' prayers. These are nothing more than vain repetitions (Matthew 6:7), and going against Christ's teachings. There are other repetitive prayers that you should guard yourself against. Remember God knows our thoughts before we even speak!

8) Should we do away with the Old Testament or is only the New Testament relevant to the Church?

There are some elements in the New Testament that differ from the requirements of the Old Testament. There is no need for animal sacrifices for sins, as Christ Himself has paid dearly for this already. There are other refinements that Christ instructed of us, but this does not mean that the Old Testament is not relevant today. It is still fully applicable, as Christ says in Matthew:

5:17 “Think not that I am come to destroy The Law, or the Prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill.

5:18 For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no way pass from The Law, till all be fulfilled.”

The Law refers to Moses’ Law – the Torah/Pentateuch, and the Prophets refer to the Books in the Old Testament. Christ declares that these Prophets and their prophecies are still valid, we should take heed of what they say, as Peter advised us to do – 2 Peter 1:15-21. Obviously not everything has been fulfilled yet. Therefore, as Christ clearly says to anyone who wants to listen to Him, The Law of The Old Testament is still valid. What Christ means is that He has come to show people the Spiritual dimension of the physically-based Old Testament Law which was given to people by God, through Moses.

Revelation

15:4 Who shall not fear Thee, O Lord, and glorify Thy name? for [Thou] ONLY [art] Holy (see also Matt 19:17): for all nations shall come and worship before Thee; for Thy Judgments are made manifest.

You speak of Christ's love for us, and that is good, but how can people honour Christ correctly, if they disobey and contradict what He says?

From the gospel of John:

1:17 For the Law was given by Moses, [but] Grace and Truth (Nazir in Hebrew) came by Jesus Christ. ...

5:45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is [one] that accuseth you, [even] Moses, in whom ye trust.

5:46 For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me.

5:47 But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

So the above confirms that the 'Law' was given to people through Moses, as God's prophet at that time. We know that Christ has a higher status than Moses (a prophet), but at the same time Christ said that if we could not believe even the basic messages of Moses, then how could we believe Christ's deeper spiritual messages? This means that Moses' Laws should certainly be obeyed also, and by doing so we will be better able to understand Christ's message. The Law is the primary-school teacher to bring us to Christ – THE school-Master. Are you abiding by the above or not please?

Kindly consider parts of Moses' Law that Christ said He would also obey:

1) Healthy diet: Leviticus 11 and Deuteronomy 14

2) The Sabbath Day - the Day of the Lord: Genesis 2:2-3 and Exodus 20:8-11, and in obeying the 2nd Commandment (thou shalt not have any graven images, etc)

3) Environment Laws and the Importance of the Jubilee Year and the Year of Release from debts (every 7 years)¹²

How many of the above truths, have you taught to the congregants of your church please?

The above should not only be seen as applying to adherents of Judaism; Jews. Christ also adheres to the Old Testament, to obey God's Word, by fulfilling every "jot and tittle". Christ again warns us of 'traditions of men', as can be read in Matthew:

15:6 And honour not his father or his mother, [he shall be free]. Thus have ye made the Commandment of God of none effect by your Tradition.

15:7 [Ye] hypocrites, well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying,

15:8 This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with [their] lips; but their heart is FAR from me.

Are your hearts and traditions FAR away from what Christ would do or teach? The 'fruit' (your actions) certainly make a case for that.

9) Is the Roman Catholic Church perverting the Commandments?

Following on from the previous question, it may now be clear to you that you do not teach people correctly about the Law of Moses. If you have in effect done away with the Torah/Pentateuch and its immense knowledge, how can you or your followers fully understand all the concepts/laws that God wants to teach regarding the true and full knowledge of sin, and how to avoid it? Understanding the first half of the Bible is vitally important to understanding the other half, but you do not promote the reading of the Old Testament much!

Galatians 3:24 Wherefore The Law was/is our schoolmaster [to bring us] unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

Furthermore, your church does away with this, and that ensures with 100% certainty, that what the pope and bishops are telling you, is wrong. Please allow the Bible to explain itself, on this point:

Matthew:

5:19 Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least COMMANDments, and shall TEACH men so, he shall be called the least in the Kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach [them], the same shall be called great in the Kingdom of heaven.

I hope that you understand what Christ Himself is teaching us here. Now consider that you allow and may approve of your doctrine teachers who break the commandments and TEACH the false set of Commandments and lies to all members of your church. To make it clearer and to not have the excuse that I am using another Bible, the below quotations are taken from a Catholic Bible. Please see below:

New Jerusalem Bible (Catholic)

(Exodus, chapter 20)

First Commandment

You shall have no other gods to rival me.

Second Commandment

You shall not make yourself a carved image or any likeness of anything in heaven above or on earth beneath or in the waters under the earth.

You shall not bow down to them or serve them. For I, Yahweh your God, am a jealous God and I punish a parent's fault in the children, the grandchildren, and the great-grandchildren among those who hate me; but I act with faithful love towards thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments.

The Church of Rome (RSV)

(Catechism, §2052-2557)

First Commandment

You shall not have other gods besides me.

Second Commandment

You shall not take the name of the Lord, your God, in vain.

Is this not the teaching of a false set of Commandments?

The previous paragraphs show this Catholic doctrinal deception. I beg of you to separate yourselves from the Catholic doctrines, if you want to submit to Christ's authority, and to show clearly all the Commandments as they are and keep them yourself and teach others to do the same. Being the "least in the kingdom of God" may not be something that you desire to be, but you have taken on the grave responsibility of helping souls to attain a much higher ranking before God. Now that you know this, I am sure that, if you were honest, you would change your approach and teach correctly the Commandments so as to OBEY Christ. Should you continue in your ways, you will most certainly be damned to Hell-Fire as 'the least' and maybe worse, by Christ Himself!

You could start to immediately advise your doctrine teachers to follow and teach the real set of Commandments.

Remember that as a 'priest', you are not only responsible for your own soul, but for teaching other human+beings as well, apart from the fact that Christ forbade you from doing so in the first place (see Matthew 23:8-10). Should you continue to break and pervert the above Commandments, your actions will prevent souls from going to heaven, ("like a dog sleeping in the manger of oxen, for neither does he eat nor does he let the oxen eat" - Gospel of Thomas and Matthew 23:13; Luke 11:52), and this you will achieve with an absolute guarantee. How am I sure that it is with such an iron-clad guarantee? It is because Our Lord Christ, says so, in Matthew (5:19).

Notes on the Commandments:

1) Don't you see that you hide the true meaning of the Second Commandment, and this within your own Catholic Bible? If you were previously unaware of this fact, now that you know, please do not continue to hide this from the people, which will be most evil, and directly in the presence of God, for He sees all. I stuck purposely to a Catholic Bible, with its version of the Commandments, to clearly show you this deception.

2) You also pervert the true meaning of the Sabbath, by teaching it as Sunday, when it should be Saturday. By saying that, 'Christians needed to feel different than the Jews', it will be interpreted as disobeying God. Even in some of your 'doctrines', you refer to the Sabbath as Sunday, which is yet more perversion.

3) For a fuller explanation on the Catholic Church's perversion of the Commandments, see my letter to the Archbishop of Malta, here: <http://100777.com/node/1931>

10) Are those who disobey God's Commandments to be trusted?

Since it has been proven with Scripture that you not only disobey the Commandments yourselves, but even more seriously, you actually wrongfully teach others how to break them (the worst case scenario), and this (below) is what is in store for you, should you continue. The Bible verses are self-explanatory:

1 John

1:6 If we say that we have fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do NOT the truth:

...

2:4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth NOT His Commandments, is a LIAR, and the truth is NOT in him.

Hosea:

4:6 My people are destroyed for lack of My Knowledge: because thou hast rejected My Knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to Me: seeing thou hast forgotten The Law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

4:7 As they were increased, so they sinned against Me: [therefore] will I change their glory into shame.

Revelation

23:11 And the City will be borne on a "Cloud" of Light, not set upon the Earth, but carried by the Spirit. Through the gates will come many peoples and languages and they will speak with a single tongue and read of the Book of Life.

23:12 And the Priests of the Earth will come forth and call The Book evil and make pain of the 144,000 who are of the Light. But The Priest will read of The Book and the Word will turn the stomach sour, but in the mouth it will be as sweet as honey.

23:13 Thus, the Word will be revealed by the Spirit of the Light. But the Priests of the Earth will not see the Word, but make witness to the defiled word, which came out of the mouths of angels, but fell into the hand of the beast.

28:5 And seek not the Father through the Son, but the flesh re-incarnate. For the priests of the Earth will see the image of the beast and lead many into the wilderness.

I wish to point-out a stern warning from the Bible, should you continue as you are doing:

Ezekiel

*18:4 Behold, all souls are Mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is Mine: the soul that sinneth, it shall DIE.

That is right, even the soul (that sins) will die, on Judgment Day.

11) Do you know why your Bible does not have the full set of Scriptural Books?

It is because the missing books are dead against the church establishment and all religions. They were removed by evil and corrupt people within the various religious sects. Some of these books are still called Biblical apocrypha (from the Greek word ἀπόκρυφος meaning hidden). These Books are hidden from the people, whom you are supposed to serve, but the deceitful actions of the church are not hidden from God. There are several Books to note and read, such as Enoch, and the Gospels of Thomas and the newly revealed parts of the Book of Acts.

See what the now not so 'hidden' Gospel of Thomas says to us:

2:17 Jesus said to them: If you fast (ritually), you will beget sin for yourselves, and if you pray (in churches), you will be condemned, and if you give alms (to the churches), you will do evil to your spirits. And if you go into any land and wander in the regions, if they receive you, eat what they set before you, heal the sick among them.

A very powerful verse indeed!

12) On the Jesuits' Extreme Oath of Induction

Please find some parts of the Jesuits' Oath of Induction, and as you can see, there is nothing that Christ would have liked in it. Some snippets of the oath:

Q. —Whom do you serve?

A. —The Holy Father at Rome, the Pope, and the Roman Catholic Church Universal throughout the world.

Rather than obeying God our Father only as He commands us to do in the First Commandment it is to the pope that they swear allegiance! The most appalling part of this oath can be read here:

“I furthermore promise and declare that I will, when opportunity present, make and wage relentless war, secretly or openly, against all heretics, Protestants and Liberals, as I am directed to do, to extirpate and exterminate them from the face of the whole earth; and that I will spare neither age, sex or condition; and that I will hang, waste, boil, flay, strangle and bury alive these infamous heretics, rip up the stomachs and wombs of their women and crush their infants’ heads against the walls, in order to annihilate forever their execrable race. That when the same cannot be done openly, I will secretly use the poisoned cup, the strangulating cord, the steel of the poniard or the leaden bullet, regardless of the honor, rank, dignity, or authority of the person or persons, whatever may be their condition in life, either public or private, as I at any time may be directed so to do by any agent of the Pope or Superior of the Brotherhood of the Holy Faith, of the Society of Jesus.”

The full oath can be read on the internet, (see footnote).¹³

13) Is the Catholic Church the “Mother of Harlots” of Revelation?

All Romans and most of the educated world know that Rome is a city on 7 hills, and in your Catholic Bible in Revelation chapter 17, it is confirmed.

It has been known for centuries that the Vatican is “The Mother of Harlots” referred to by Christ in Revelation/

¹³ <http://www.reformation.org/jesuit-oath.html>

Apocalypse chapter 17; which explains perfectly that it is that great CITY (Vatican CITY) that rules over the kings of the Earth; that sits on 7 mountains (Rome), where the inhabitants wear SCARLET (cardinals) and PURPLE (bishops) decked with gold; precious stones and pearls and calls itself “Mother” church.

However, Christ calls her the “Mother of Abominations”; his ENEMY and the great WHORE and He, NOT the pope, MUST be right.

14) Final comments

Do you see that, with EVERY STEP as mentioned above, you put a stumbling block, between you and the members of your church and God? Do you see how badly it will work out for you if you continue as you have been doing?

St Paul clearly stated that he should please God and not men; see Galatians:*

1:10 For do I now persuade men, or [does] God [through me]? Or do I seek to please men? For if I yet PLEASED men, I should NOT be the servant of Christ.

What about you? Do you wish to please God first, and men and/or Church second, or is it the other way round?

To be a servant of Christ, to the fullest, we must find the COURAGE to stand by what Christ said and more importantly by what He did. Paying lip-service, and vainly and repetitiously chanting to Mary or even to Christ, does no good. He condemned and forbade it (Matthew 6:5-7). You must back your words up with the correct actions that Christ himself demanded of us. You judge a tree (human+being) by its fruit (actions); not by its mouth.

Don't worry if you have suddenly been hit by too many Biblical truths, and that you may not be able to stomach them all at once. There is a way out of this. Start by repenting to God our Father, for all your idolatry, blasphemy and lies, and also openly tell your congregation the truths and "get out of her" (the church/beast) – Revelation 18:4.

18:4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, COME OUT of her, MY people, that ye take not part in her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues (punishment).

As demonstrated above, it has been proven logically and conclusively and without doubt that the RCC supports non-Biblical and anti-Christ doctrines. So, as originally asked above, when there are these obvious conflicts, to whom do you swear allegiance; to Christ or the Church?

Please refrain from using the Bible only as an "à la carte" menu. That is, picking and choosing what to read, and accepting only things which are appealing to Church doctrine, and not giving the full information, of spiritual knowledge, to the people. Should you wish me to pass on these core messages of Christ personally in your Church, or your homily or by any other means, I would be most happy to oblige.

Look at the repentant man who was crucified alongside Christ Jesus. It is not too late to get right with God, but based on the way that things are on earth right now and the signs of the end times – <http://jahtruth.net/signs.htm> – it appears that time is running very short. Another purpose for this letter is to show people, how just and fair God's Laws are for everyone, and it is only by returning to His Law, that peace and harmony amongst people, and their neighbours, can be re-gained and re-established. For those readers who are seriously considering going "home" to where we belong (heaven), you need "The Key". Christ is 'The Door' and this is 'The Key'. Humble hearts before God, may read this free downloadable 'key' here:

<http://thewayhomeorfacethefire.net/>

It is better to hurt our egos now, and to remedy ourselves, than to face the consequences later. Reading this letter should be a true blessing and is a sincere message to save your souls (you) from The Fire!

Praise Father and His Gracious Son, for all this information! Allelujah!

Peace and blessings upon you.

Under God's guiding hands,

Christopher Grech
